

IUPUI Scholarships

General Scholarship:

IUPUI International Experience Scholarships: This award is intended to support IUPUI undergraduate students in an approved study abroad program. The awards are generally $1,000-3,000, depending on program length. Candidates must be degree seeking at IUPUI/IUPUC and participate in an approved overseas program in which they will earn credit towards an IUPUI/IUPUC degree. Non-degree seeking students who are completing a certificate may also be considered on a case-by-case basis. You do not need to be accepted into a program before applying for the scholarship. For more information, check: abroad.iupui.edu/financial-aid or contact the Study Abroad Office: abroad@iupui.edu; (317) 274-2081.

DEADLINES: February for summer, fall and academic year programs; October for winter break, spring, spring break, and summer programs.

Existing Scholarships:

Are you currently receiving a scholarship? If so, you may be able to use it toward study abroad! The following scholarships have a stipend which may be used toward study abroad:

Plater International Scholars Program

$ 2,500 study abroad stipend

Adam W. Herbert Presidential Scholars Program

$2,500 study abroad stipend

Bepko Scholars and Fellows Program

$2,500 study abroad stipend

Chancellor's Scholars

$2,500 study abroad stipend

Herron School of Art & Design:

Rev. A. Ian FRASER International Travel Award: Up to $2,000 awarded to a full-time Herron student to travel with a Herron sponsored international program. Student must have a minimum overall GPA of 3.30. The application for this award is included in the application to all Herron study abroad programs.

DEADLINE: same deadline as Herron program applications.

Miller Student Travel Award: Approximately $500 will be awarded to Herron students who have demonstrated superior talent and skills and an interest in pursuing art studies in the US or abroad. The application for this award is included in the application to all Herron study abroad programs.

DEADLINE: same deadline as Herron program applications.

Julia Z. Wickes Award: Approximately $1,500 will be awarded to full-time, undergraduate students pursuing a degree in fine arts by participating in a residential artistic studio environment located abroad. For more information, contact Herron Student Services, HR 126, (317) 278-9400.

DEADLINE: February

Lilly Family School of Philanthropy:

IUPUI RISE Scholarships: $1,500 is awarded to enable students to participate in the Research, International, Service Learning, and Experiential Learning (RISE) activities for which the scholarship is named.

ELIGIBILITY: Undergraduate students majoring in Philanthropic Studies through the IU Lilly Family School of Philanthropy are eligible for RISE scholarships offered by the school. For more information, contact Pamela Clark, TG 301, (317) 278-8927 or pamelac@iupui.edu.

DEADLINES: March for Spring Awards; December for Summer Awards; May for Fall Awards

Lilly Family School of Philanthropy Study Abroad

Scholarship: Up to $3,500 for any philanthropic studies undergraduate, graduate, or certificate student, full or part-time, to participate in an approved, credit-bearing study abroad course. Recipients will be selected on the basis of need, merit, and motivation. Preference given to students who have never had an opportunity to study overseas.

DEADLINE: February

Kelley School of Business:

Victor E. Childers International Study Award

$500.00 scholarships are offered for Fall, Spring, and Summer. To be eligible for this scholarship students must be enrolled in the Kelley School of Business at IUPUI, have a minimum 3.2 cumulative GPA, and be accepted into a Kelley School of Business approved, credit-earning study abroad program. Students should have demonstrated scholarship, leadership, work ethic, community service, and financial need.

RISE Scholarships

$1,500 awards are offered for Fall, Spring, and Summer. To be eligible for this scholarship students must be registered in a course that has a RISE designation, must be enrolled in the Kelley School of Business at IUPUI, and have a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0.

DEADLINES: Typically October for Spring, Spring Break, and Summer programs, and February for Summer and Fall programs. For more information on scholarships for Kelley students, contact ksbischo@iupui.edu.

School of Engineering and Technology:

Yurtseven Scholarship: The Yurtseven scholarship is available to students in the School of Engineering and Technology who are planning to study abroad during the calendar year. Amounts vary typically from $500 - $1,000. The amount of the award and the number of scholarships is dependent on the money in the fund. A committee of School faculty and staff will select the recipients. For more information, please contact Terri Talbert-Hatch, ET 101, (317) 274-8703, or ttalbert@iupui.edu.

Engineering & Technology Honors Program Travel

Grant: The purpose of the Travel Grant is to help Honors Program students participate in a Study Abroad experience or a conference in their area of study. ONLY Engineering &

Technology Honors Program Students can apply. Honors College scholars are not eligible even if they are Engineering & Technology Students. The grant award is up to $2,000. Visit, <http://enr.iupui.edu/infofor/current-students/honors/travel.php> to apply. Applications must be submitted to Susan Bradley (susjbrad@iupui.edu or ET 215N in the Office of Academic Affairs and Undergraduate Programs).

School of Liberal Arts:

Margaret A. Cook Foreign Study Award: Strong preference is given to foreign language majors or students studying in a non-English speaking country at the junior and senior level. Criteria for selection includes: cumulative GPA, language ability, and plans for continued study of a modern foreign language. Three recipients will receive up to $1000 each.

Beaudry Summer Scholarships for French and Francophone Studies: This scholarship, up to $2400, promotes and encourages the cultural and linguistic development of IUPUI students majoring or minoring in French by funding student participation in an academically approved foreign study programs in a French-speaking country during the summer session. IUPUI undergraduate French major preferred (may be an IUPUI French minor). Contact: Dr. Kathryn Lauten, 317-274-2497 or klauten@iupui.edu.

Bersier World Language Scholarship: This $500 scholarship is awarded to an undergraduate student who is enrolled part or full time, majoring in the Department of World Languages and Cultures, or is enrolled in the Individualized Major Program with a world language concentration, and who has a record of academic excellence. Preference will be given to a student who has demonstrated service to their language discipline.

Marius J. Faure Family Scholarship: This scholarship, up to $1,300, is awarded each year to an outstanding student who has declared a major in French language and literature at IUPUI. Not specifically for study abroad, it would nevertheless assist the student in participating in a program abroad.

Gail M. & William M. Plater International Scholarship for Community Engagement: This scholarship is for any degree-seeking IUPUI student, including international students studying at IUPUI, IUPUI students studying abroad, and IUPUI students studying locally or nationally (as long as community engagement is an intentional aspect of their studies). Recipients will devote a reasonable amount of time to a project, as determined by and under the supervision of a faculty member, consistent with the student's learning objectives and the goals of a specific project that demonstrates learning through community engagement. Amounts range from $1,000-3,000.

William M. Plater General Studies International Scholarship: Awarded to a student enrolled in the General

Studies Degree Program within the School of Liberal Arts. Applicant should have a financial need and an interest in adding an international educational experience to their portfolio while pursuing their first undergraduate degree. Should no applications for an international experience be submitted, a qualified candidate requesting domestic experience outside Indiana may be selected. Executive Vice Chancellor and Dean of the Faculties Emeritus William M. Plater is a strong advocate for IUPUI's nontraditional students. The amount is $600.

Max Kade German American Study Abroad Scholarship: Supports the study of German via overseas study for IUPUI undergraduate students. Participation in an approved overseas study program for the study of German. Applicants must be working toward a degree. Full-time and part-time students are eligible. Study abroad credits must apply toward that degree.

Nancy Newton Study Abroad Scholarship: Provides support to undergraduate IUPUI Spanish majors and graduate students in the IUPUI Spanish M.A.T. for Spanish language study abroad programs (preference given for participation in the Salamanca and Pachuca programs). $500 award.

Audrey Harshbarger Study Abroad Scholarship: Scholarships award for a semester or year-long program (summer programs not eligible). Recipients must be undergraduate students in the IU School of Liberal Arts. Up to one-third of approved program costs may be awarded.

Alice Chandler Gockley and Gordon E. Gockley Memorial Scholarship: Up to $1500 will be awarded per year to a student who has been accepted to an accredited international study program or enrolled in a Liberal Arts course that contains an international component that requires travel outside the United States of America. The recipients should have demonstrated financial need, as determined by standard university measures. Recipients must be undergraduate students in the IU School of Liberal Arts.

School of Liberal Arts Dean's Scholarship: $500 award for students at least sophomores with at least one academic year remaining prior to graduation who are seeking their first undergraduate degree.

Sutton Scholars International Experience Fund: $500 award will provide support for international educational experiences for students engaging in social, cultural, and/or historical academic endeavors.

P.M.G. and M.S.W. Harris Study Abroad Scholarship: Eligible candidates will be students majoring in a School of Liberal Arts discipline and enrolled in an accredited study abroad program for a semester or year-long academic program. In selecting recipients, preference will be given to students majoring in history or graduate students in history. $500 award.

(over)

For more information about the above listed, contact Scholarships Manager, Amy Jones Richardson at (317) 274-2465 or aajones@iupui.edu. Online applications are available at <http://liberalarts.iupui.edu/scholarship/>.
DEADLINES: February, for the following year.

School of Nursing:

Global Learning and Research in Nursing: The School of Nursing provides up to $1,200 in scholarship support for undergraduate and graduate students participating in coursework abroad. Through the Charlotte A. Carlley/Jean E. Schweer Mentorship in Cross-Cultural Studies Fund and the International Learning Experience Program Fund, students may be awarded support for course expenses. Criteria for selection include GPA, an essay on learning goals and relevance of course to program outcomes, and strong letters of support. Application is available online at: <http://nursing.iu.edu/about/global/study-abroad-scholarship-app.shtml>. For more information, contact Prof. Mary Riner, mriner@iu.edu.
DEADLINE: February

School of Physical Education and Tourism Management:
Efroymson TCEM Semester Study Abroad Award for Germany: The Department of Tourism, Conventions, and Event Management (TCEM) awards the Efroymson-Tourism Management Study Abroad Award to a minimum of one student to study abroad for one semester in Germany (Feb-July). Minority students and those with financial need are encouraged to apply. Application is available online: <https://petm.iupui.edu/admissions/aid/scholarships.html>. For more information, contact TCEM: (317) 278-7439, tcemdept@iupui.edu. Applications and materials for consideration should be sent to tcemdept@iupui.edu.
DEADLINE: October

Efroymson TCEM Study Abroad Award for Cruise Line Management: The Department of Tourism, Conventions, and Event Management (TCEM) awards the Efroymson-Tourism Management Study Abroad Awards to five students who plan to enroll in the Cruise Line Management study abroad program (to offset travel expenses). Minority students and those with financial need are encouraged to apply. The study abroad program takes place over spring break. Application is available online: <https://petm.iupui.edu/admissions/aid/scholarships.html>. For more information, contact Susan Alvarez in TCEM: (317) 278-6078 or slalvare@iupui.edu. Applications and materials for consideration should be sent to tcemdept@iupui.edu.
DEADLINE: October

TCEM Study Abroad Award for the Germany Summer Experience: The Department of Tourism, Conventions, and Event Management (TCEM) awards the Efroymson-Tourism Management Study Abroad Awards to five students who plan to enroll in the Germany Summer Experience Program study abroad program (to offset travel expenses). Minority students and those with financial need are encouraged to apply. The study abroad program takes place over three weeks in June (Summer I). Application is available at <https://petm.iupui.edu/admissions/aid/scholarships.html>. For more information, contact TCEM: (317) 278-7439, tcemdept@iupui.edu. Applications and materials for consideration should be sent to tcemdept@iupui.edu.

DEADLINE: January

School of Public & Environmental Affairs (SPEA)

Automatic awards: SPEA undergraduate students participating on a SPEA overseas program (offered either through Indianapolis or Bloomington) will receive a scholarship for half of the stated program fees, between $500-$2,000. For information on the total costs for each program, please visit http://www.indiana.edu/~spea/spea_abroad/, select your desired program, and view the costs.

International Experience Scholars: This scholarship supports SPEA students who are studying abroad, and to apply, you must be a SPEA undergraduate student in good academic standing.

Please visit <https://spea.iupui.edu/student-life/study-abroad/index.html> for additional information about the International Experience Scholars opportunity. For more information contact: Kristine Schuster, BS 3025 B, (317) 278-1578, kschuster@iu.edu. DEADLINES: March

School of Science

Indumati Sukhatme RISE – Study Abroad Scholarship: The RISE-Study Abroad scholarship provides support for a continuing Science major that is enhancing his or her educational experience through studying abroad.

William H. and Elizabeth M. Reid RISE – Study Abroad Scholarship: This RISE scholarship honors the Reid's legacy and supports outstanding undergraduate students from the School of Science who participate in an international experience. This RISE-Study Abroad scholarship provides support for an undergraduate Science major who participates in an international experience, with preference given to an overseas experience in China or the United Kingdom.

For more information, contact Molly Rondeau, LD 222, (317) 274-0672, mrondeau@iupui.edu.
DEADLINES: February

Office of Student Scholarships:

While not explicitly related to study abroad, the Office of Student Scholarships offers scholarships to continuing IUPUI students. These scholarships may be applied to study abroad programs. Explore your options here: <http://www.iupui.edu/~scentral/>

(over)

IUB Scholarships

IU Office of Overseas Study

Minority Scholarships:

Overseas Study need-based Minority Scholarships are available for all IU administered programs.

Non-IUB Campus Scholarships:

Overseas Study Scholarships are available to students enrolled on one of the IU System campuses for all IU administered programs.

Internship Incentive Grants:

Awards are available for students participating in for-credit internships in pre-selected IU-administered and co-sponsored programs for the fall or spring semester. Financial need and academic performance are considered. Grants are for $2,500.

Applications are due by your program application deadline and may be found at <http://overseas.iu.edu/apply/aid.shtml>.

Non-IU Scholarships

Freeman Asia Grants are awarded to students who study in East and Southeast Asia. Grants are available for summer, semester and academic year terms. For more information, visit www.iie.org/programs/freeman-asia

Deutscher Akademischer Austausch Dienst (DAAD) offers a wide range of opportunities to students for study and research in Germany. For more information, visit <https://www.daad.org/en/>

David L. Boren Scholarship The National Security Education Program (NSEP) www.borenawards.org Boren Scholarships are available to degree-seeking undergraduates planning to study abroad for at least 8 weeks. The award focuses on geographic areas, languages, and fields of study that are critical to U.S. national security, broadly defined and underrepresented in study abroad. Applicants should identify how their study abroad program, as well as their future academic and career goals, will contribute to U.S. national security, broadly defined. There is a significant government service requirement. Emphasized world regions include Africa, Asia, Central and Eastern Europe, Latin America and the Caribbean and the Middle East. Excludes: Western Europe, Canada, Australia, and New Zealand.

The Benjamin A. Gilman Scholarship program enables students who have limited financial means to participate in study abroad opportunities worldwide. The program provides awards of up to $5,000 for U.S. citizen undergraduate students at two- and four-year institutions to pursue semester or academic-year long study abroad opportunities in other countries. To be eligible students must be receiving a Federal Pell Grant at the time of application and cannot be studying abroad in a country currently under a U.S. Department of State Travel Warning or in Cuba. Please visit: www.iie.org/en/Programs/Gilman-Scholarship-Program

Note: Other scholarships may also be available for you to use on a study abroad program. We strongly encourage you to check with your school and department administrators for the most recent scholarship information.*

Thomas R. Pickering Foreign Affairs Fellowship prepares talented college sophomores and seniors to become Foreign Service Officers in the United States Department of State after completion of undergraduate and graduate degrees. The fellowship award includes tuition, room, board, and mandatory fees during the senior years of college and during the first year of graduate. More information available online at: <http://woodrow.org/fellowships/pickering/>

Bridging Scholarship Program $2500-4000 stipend; awards scholarships annually to assist students with the travel and living expenses they will incur will studying abroad in Japan for a semester or academic year. Undergraduate students majoring in any field of study and attending any recognized exchange or independent program in Japan are eligible to apply for these scholarships. For more information on the Bridging Scholarships or the application procedure, please contact the AATJ office: aatj@aatj.org <http://www.aatj.org/studyabroad/japan-bridging-scholarships>

Killam Fellowships Program $5,000 per semester, and includes a health coverage allowance. The Killam Fellowships Program is a unique exchange opportunity that offers American undergraduate students the chance to spend either one semester or a full academic year studying at a university in Canada. For more information: <http://www.killamfellowships.com/>

Generation Study Abroad New Zealand Universities Excellence Awards (NZUEA) $500 for a student to study abroad at 1 of 8 New Zealand universities. Visit <https://enz.govt.nz/support/funding/scholarships/generation-study-abroad-excellence-and-travel-awards/> For further information, please contact, scholarship@enz.govt.nz.

Fund for Education Abroad offers scholarships for undergraduate students with financial need who wish to study abroad. Students must be U.S. citizens or permanent residents. Study abroad programs must be eligible for academic credit at the student's home institution, and must be at least 4 weeks (28 days) long. See website for details and eligibility criteria, or to apply. DEADLINE: January.

Search Study Abroad Scholarships

- www.studyabroad.com/forum/financial_aid.html
- <http://allabroad.us/funding-study-abroad-scholarships.php>

The IUPUI Study Abroad Office:
ES 2129 B Office Hours:
(317) 274-2081 Monday - Friday
abroad@iupui.edu 9:00am - 5:00pm

(over)